Beyond The Supernatural

Beyond the Supernatural is implicitly set in the modern day, wherein magic and psychic powers are real and monsters and demonic cults exist, but out of the public eye. This, however, is not set in stone, and most of the character classes are flexible enough to account for variant settings or time periods.

Beyond the Supernatural - Wikipedia

Beyond the Supernatural is one of many books under the umbrella of Palladium's RPG gaming system, and yes it is an older system but it has stood the test of time. Beyond the Supernatural has a setting, in my option, of a modern day Cthulhu mythos meets HellBoy with a small amount of X files thrown into the pot.

In a lot of ways, Beyond the Supernatural 1e feels like a sort of beta version of Rifts. Sure, it doesn't have dragons or mecha or Illinois Nazis, but BTS has characters with psychic powers and magical abilities fighting monsters from other dimensions that creep into our reality through rifts at ley lines.

Beyond the Supernatural by Randy McCall - Goodreads

Beyond the Supernatural™ Two builds on the bones of the classic BTS game to create a modern world of horror and magic unlike any before it. The supernatural is real. Psychic abilities and the paranormal are real. Magic is real. Yet science and authority figures dismiss them as hysteria, hoaxes and madness.

Beyond the Supernatural | Rifts Wiki | Fandom

"Beyond the Supernatural" posted: Beyond the Supernatural is a game. It's meant to be fun. A brief respite from the ordinary, humdrum routine of daily life. It is a fanciful entertainment that lets its players build a story around characters they have created. An elaborate version of cops and robbers.

FATAL & Friends — Beyond the Supernatural

Beyond the Supernatural Two builds on the bones of the classic BTS game to create a modern world of horror and magic unlike any before it. Some of our heroes are gung-ho psychics and sorcerers who see themselves as humankind's hidden protectors. Others are drawn into the realm of shadows through quirks of fate, or fueled by feelings of revenge.
