I was recently given a couple of novels by Susan Lewis by a friend. I commute to work, so get through a lot of books. Although I would not choose to buy these novels, as the same time I enjoyed reading them - so they serve a purpose. This novel is easy reading, and sometimes that can be quite enjoyable.

Missing by Susan Lewis | WHSmith
I bought this bundle having read Never Let Me Go which i really enjoyed. It seems that Susan Lewis has improved a lot since these were written. I found missing to be really lame. It had the potential to become a really good story had she incorporated the missing child into the story. As it stood it was dull.
